Lincoln Days Celebration, Inc. Announces
Annual Lincoln Birthday Commemorative Luncheon, February 12, 2007

Lincoln Days Celebration, Inc. invites everyone to attend the annual Lincoln birthday luncheon that will be held at the Cooperative Extension Office on Hwy 210 West in Hodgenville, on February 12, 2007. Besides celebrating the 198th birthday of Abraham Lincoln, the luncheon will feature the winner of the February 10th Lincoln oratory contest as well as updates for the coming bicentennial. In just one year we will be celebrating the kick-off event for the bicentennial.

Planned by the Board Members for 2007:

President:	Charles Setters
Vice-President	Wade Fathergill
Secretary	Opal Dail
Treasurer	Robert Barnhill

Sandy Brue
Donnie Propes
Carolyn Richards

The luncheon will begin at noon. Tickets for this luncheon, catered by Culinary Arts of Elizabethtown Community Technical College will be $12 and may be purchased from the Lincoln Museum, the Chamber of Commerce in downtown Hodgenville, or at the door. Seating is limited and tickets may be reserved by calling 270-358-8710.

After the luncheon adjournment everyone is invited to the Abraham Lincoln Birthplace National Historic Site for a wreath laying ceremony in the Memorial Building. This ceremony will be followed by birthday cake and punch. For additional information, please call the Lincoln Days Celebration, Inc. offices, 270-358-8710, the Lincoln Museum, 270-358-3163, or the Chamber of Commerce, 270-358-3411.
